STIPULATION

Plaintiff United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, United States Attorney, Philip A. Talbert and Assistant United States Attorney, Brian W. 1. By previous order, this matter was set for status on June 10, 2022.
2. By this stipulation, the parties stipulate to continue the status conference until June 17, 2022.
3. The parties base this stipulation on good cause, and request that the Court endorse it by way of formal order. Specifically:
 - a) The United States Probation Office’s supervision of defendant was transferred from the District of North Dakota to the Eastern District of California in January 2020. Dkt. 1 and 2. A Rule 12C petition was filed in this District on February 4, 2022. Dkt. 4. Defendant’s

1 initial appearance took place on May 20, 2022 (Dkt. 8) and detention hearing took place on May
2 26, 2022. Dkt. 9.

3 b) At the conclusion of the detention hearing, the court set a status conference for 4 June 10, 2022. Dkt. 9. On June 1, 2022, the court issued a minute order wherein it ordered the
5 parties to meet and confer about the case and file, by Wednesday, June 8, 2022, either a (1)
6 stipulation to continue the June 10 status conference, or (2) joint report addressing what could be
7 accomplished at the same. Dkt. 11. On June 3, 2022, defendant's representation was transferred
8 to attorney Roberto R. Dulce. Dkt. 12.

9 c) The parties have since met and conferred about the case. Pursuant to the same,
10 they ask that this matter be continued to Friday, June 17, 2022. Defense counsel has not yet been 11 able to consult with his client, to review the current charges, to discuss these charges with 12 defendant's U.S. Probation Officer, to conduct investigation and research related to the charges,
13 to review discovery regarding this matter, and to discuss potential resolutions with his client.
